Police

Monthly Report was read and handed out. Jimmy Schneider and Corie Faggart are in Crisis Intervention Training this week. This is a nationally recognized training designed to give police officers the ability to better understand and deal with people suffering from mental illness.

Randy Down is still in field training, and within the next few weeks he will be on his own.

Streets

Nothing at this time

Parks & Recreation

Bridgette Helms is working on the PARTF Grant again, she will be adding to this application that we have purchased some property adjacent to our current Pete Henkel Park. We need to sit down and brain storm some ideas of what we would like to have in the Park.

Water & Sewer

Water & Sewer guys have finished a water and sewer tap on Love St, for a new home.

Planning & Zoning

Nothing at this time.

Mayor

James Kluttz has mentioned to Kevin Barbee that the board may want to consider having a town e-mail address, since email address are public knowledge.

Kevin Barbee read a proclamation for Black History Month.

James Griffin made a motion to adopt the Black History Month Proclamation. All were in favor, motion carried.

Jerry Williams made a motion for Mayor Kevin Barbee to sign in favor of the Deer Urban Archery Season for 2020. All were in favor. Motion carried.

Everyone received a copy of the preliminary budget for 2019-2020. Everyone was asked to look over it in detail and come back next month with suggestions, and to look at the employee evaluation. James Griffin mentioned of a K-9 unit. He ask that everyone think about it and really consider it. This would be good to help the police get some of these drugs off the street.

Larry Sides made a motion to adjourn at 7:43 pm. All were in favor. Motion carried.
